VOLUNTEERS

SPIRITUAL CARE VOLUNTEERS

Are you a member of the clergy who wishes to share your faith with residents? We have opportunities for clergy within established religions to schedule religious services on-site in our Chapels. We also have opportunities for non-ordained members of any faith community to attend our sites to provide support to residents who request their support.

ROLE DESCRIPTION and RESPONSIBILITIES

Spiritual Care Volunteers provide a connection to a resident's faith community. Clergy within established religions may attend the site to preside over religious services. Non-ordained members of a faith community may attend the site to provide one-on-one or small group support to residents who request it. You should have a connection with an established community faith group.

You will need:

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills to engage with residents
- Understand the safety requirements and rules of the Brenda Strafford Foundation
- Sign in and out and track your hours
- Arrive on time and maintain a professional demeanor with residents and staff
- Report the resident's participation to your supervisor for charting on their clinical record
- In a timely manner, let your supervisor know if you are running late or unable to fulfill your commitment

REQUIREMENTS

- Completed application
- Successful completion of the interview process
- Positive reference checks
- Pass a City of Calgary Police Information Check and Vulnerable Sector Search
- Complete the orientation and screening process
